

EXTRAORDINARY VOLUNTEERS FOR 2011

This year the following extraordinary individuals have been singled out by their fellow residents for recognition on account of their volunteer efforts in Medfield:

- | | |
|--------------------------|---|
| Bill Pope | volunteers by creating, renovating, and fostering the Zullo Gallery, and through the Zullo Gallery the town's cultural life |
| Jeanne Sanfilippo | volunteers as chair for the past eight years of the Medfield High School all night graduation party |
| Susan Holbrook | volunteers with Cradles to Crayons to provide clothing and school supplies to Boston children, while promoting a sense of dignity and value in their community |
| Ron Griffin | volunteers for the Shine program, assisting seniors make health care choices |
| Shonda Schilling | volunteers for the ALS Association, the Shade Foundation, AANE, the schools, coaching, and fund raising for MHS fields |
| John Filip | volunteers to organize and operate St. Edward's CYO basketball |
| Betty Sanders | volunteers for the Medfield Garden Club, Medfield Community Gardens, Medfield Food Cupboard, Mass. Hort. Society, and shares her gardening expertise |
| Larry Kramer | volunteers by doing music concerts that fund-raise for Medfield Coalition for Public Education and for Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of America |
| Laurie Nealon | volunteers by forming and operating the Medfield Angels Network, a 400 strong network connecting Medfield residents who have the capacity to give with fellow residents who have short term needs |
| Kathleen Cahill | volunteers by forming and operating the Medfield Angels Network, a 400 strong network connecting Medfield residents who have the capacity to give with fellow residents who have short term needs |
| Katherine Quinn | volunteers for Wishi project in Ecuador, seeking to build a school |
| Jeanne McKenzie | volunteers as the Christmas Angel, coordinating a Christmas sponsorship program that provides Christmas presents to over thirty Medfield families through Medfield Youth Outreach and other organizations |
| Nicki Gustafson | volunteers as the Christmas Angel, coordinating a Christmas sponsorship program that provides Christmas presents to over thirty Medfield families through Medfield Youth Outreach and other organizations |
| Susan Wilson | volunteers running the Friends of the Library twice annual book sales for the past 6 years and doing the necessary weekly preparation |
| Harold Pritoni | volunteers at the Dwight-Derby House using his talents in home repair and woodworking to greatly improve the house and the visitor experience |
| Chris Kaldy | volunteers by educating the public, including groups and the children in town about how to protect themselves against Lyme disease |
| Lisa Dolan | volunteers by educating the public, including groups and the children in town about how to protect themselves against Lyme disease |